

Joe Polish is the Founder of Genius Network®, one of the highest-level groups in the world for Entrepreneurs. He curates the Annual Genius Network Event, Genius Network ($25,000), and 100k ($100,000), all three groups being home to some of the most successful Entrepreneurs alive and is considered one of the most influential Connectors in the world.

Joe has also helped build thousands of businesses and generated hundreds of millions of dollars for his clients. He has been featured in INC, Fortune, Forbes, Success, U.S News & World Report, among others, and has spoken at Stanford University. Joe also hosts three of the top ranked marketing and business podcasts on iTunes, including iLoveMarketing, 10xTalk, and GeniusNetwork. He's also changed the lives of many others through his charitable causes including: The Make-A-Wish Foundation, Artists For Addicts, Genius Recovery, JoeVolunteer.com, as well as being the single largest contributor to Sir Richard Branson's charity, Virgin Unite.

Recent projects include: GeniusX - a VR company he co-founded helping to bring healing and educational learning through the platform Retreat; and purchased a 40-acre ghost town in Cleator, AZ (www.WhatsYourCleator.com)

His documentary "CONNECTED: The Joe Polish Story," premiered at the historic TCL Chinese Theatre (formerly Mann's Chinese Theatre), and his documentary "Black Star" won the Audience Choice Award at the Sedona Film Festival.

Joe's mission with Entrepreneurs and Genius Network® is "to build a better Entrepreneur," and his mission with Genius Recovery is "to change the global conversation of how people view and treat addicts with compassion, instead of judgment and to find the best forms of treatment that has efficacy and share those with the world.
